I'm dreaming of a white Christmas!!

Unlikely I know! But can't a man dream?! It's certainly cold enough!

So here we are with one and half weeks to go, and so much still to squeeze in!

Last Friday was amazing! We raised nearly £400 at our Christmas Fayre! Thank you to all who helped and supported this event. Tonight is Movie Night—starting at 5:30 and finishing at 7:30pm. Next week sees the 2 wonderful Christmas Nativities as well as our delectable Christmas Lunch and then on Monday 18th—the Secret Room, already festooned with lovely items the children can purchase for your pleasure on Christmas morning!

May I also thank Mrs Maynard and Mr Baines, who have worked tirelessly with our choir and band, taking them 'on tour' around local nursing homes and performing for the whole school this week. Lovely singing, well done everyone.

Finally may I remind you we finish slightly earlier on Wednesday 20th, at 2pm. This will allow all teachers to rush home and put up their decorations and tree! Ho! Ho! Ho!!

Mr H

Week 2 of the menu next week folks!

Please note to incorporate the Christmas Dinner there will be the following changes:

Girlguiding

Join a collective of women and girls
empowering each other

St Minver needs volunteers for Rainbow
section age 5-7, and for Guides age 10-15

Why not make a New Years resolution to do something for you and your community?

Volunteer and make a difference

Build skills for life

Gain confidence and make friends

Be an inspiration for girls

Whether you've been involved in guiding before or you are completely new to us, you'll feel proud to watch girls grow through guiding.

are:

Indie Thompson—3,916

Esme Rigby—2,260

The top class was Class R
with 10,246 points. Well done everyone!

All clubs have now finished until next term. If you have any outstanding fees to pay for a club, please do so by the end of term New club listings will be issued early in the spring term.

We have some outstanding dinner monies building up,
please can you settle your accounts, we only have a small kitchen and over £200 owing which is a huge debt for us to carry!!!!!!

On Monday the school choir completed their annual trip to sing carols for the residents of Trewiston Lodge Nursing Home and Windmill Court Nursing Home. As always they were well received and helped spread a little festive cheer to all who watched their performances.

The choir have been busy recording some Christmas songs,
which are available in an MP3
format for a donation of £4.
If you'd like to order the recordings, please contact Liz
in the office.
