If life was in black and white,

All the world would be grey.

If there was just one instrument,

No orchestra could play.

Like every note in a song,

Each special voice in a choir,

Like snowflakes, clouds, and fingerprints,

Uniqueness gives us power.

You are you, I am me, celebrate variety,

Let love shine through.

You are you, I am me, rich in our diversity,

Together we make harmony, yeah.

If there was only one word,

How could we write a book?

With only one ingredient

What recipes would we cook?

Like every note in a song,

Each special voice in a choir,

Like snowflakes, clouds, and fingerprints,

Uniqueness gives us power.

You are you, I am me, celebrate variety,

Let love shine through.

You are you, I am me, rich in our diversity,

Together we make harmony, yeah.

Let love, let love shine through.

Let love, let love shine through.

Let love, let love shine through.

Let love, let love shine through.

Let love, let love shine through.

Let love, let love shine through.

Let love, let love shine through.

Let love, let love shine through.

You are you, I am me, celebrate variety,

Let love shine through.

You are you, I am me, rich in our diversity,

Together we make harmony.

You are you, I am me, celebrate variety,

Let love shine through.

You are you, I am me, rich in our diversity,

Together we make harmony, yeah.
